

organizations. I urge the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, my good friend Senator LEAHY, to schedule a hearing soon for Mr. Walters. Once the top positions at both the DEA and ONDCP have been filled, we can all begin to work together to effect real change that will benefit all Americans.

Mr. SESSIONS. Madam President, I rise to make some remarks about ASA HUTCHINSON. I had the pleasure of serving with him as U.S. attorney. We met at a conference. I remember having breakfast with him. We had never met before. I learned something about him, his character and his commitment to public service.

He is going to be one of the finest DEA leaders we have ever had. He served on the House Judiciary Committee. I worked with him on that committee, since I have been on the Senate Judiciary Committee. During that time, I came to respect him terrifically.

During the impeachment hearings, he had the burden of stating the case, basically the factual allegations involved, as one of the House managers. In my view, as a prosecutor of over 16 years, his was the most comprehensive, most intelligent, most valuable statement that occurred during that entire hearing. If anybody would like to know what the facts were and what the allegations were in that impeachment hearing, they should read his summary of the facts. It did exactly what he was required to do: faithfully and fairly and honestly state the allegations that were there and the facts that backed them up. It was comprehensive, honest, and complete. I respected him for it.

His brother TIM, of course, serves in this body. I serve with him on two committees. I respect TIM terrifically. They are both men of integrity, deep personal faith, and a commitment to public service that is remarkable.

ASA HUTCHINSON will reflect well on President Bush as his nominee. I think he will do an outstanding job. I look forward to working with him, and I know he will effectively turn the tide against increasing drug use in America.

Finally, let me say, with regard to the FBI and the DEA, now we have seen two of the finest nominees you can expect to have in Bob Mueller, a professional's professional, a man who has received prominence in both Democrat and Republican administrations, as the head of the FBI, and ASA HUTCHINSON at DEA, a man of commitment and integrity and ability to head that important organization.

I am excited for both of them. I believe the President has done a good job. I think America will be served well by their efforts.

Mr. LEAHY. I yield back the remainder of my time.

Mr. HATCH. I yield back the remainder of my time.

Mr. LEAHY. I ask for the yeas and nays.

Mr. REID. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

VOTE EXPLANATION

Mr. McCain. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that on the vote regarding the nomination of ASA HUTCHINSON to be the Administrator of the Drug Enforcement Agency, that if I were present, I be recorded as having voted "yea."

LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will return to legislative session.

The Senator from Nevada.

ORDER OF PROCEDURE

Mr. REID. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate considers the Boxer amendment—which will be immediately—regarding arsenic, that there be 60 minutes for debate, with the time equally divided and controlled between Senators Boxer and Bond or their designees, with no second-degree amendments in order thereto, that upon the use or yielding back of time, the Senate, without intervening action or debate, proceed to vote in relation to the amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. LEAHY. Madam President, reserving the right to object, and I will not object, would the distinguished leader be willing to amend that to allow me to speak before that for 4 minutes on judicial nominations?

Mr. REID. I will be happy to amend that.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. REID. Madam President, the majority leader has asked me to announce to everyone that he wants to finish this bill tonight. We have exchanged lists with the minority. Hopefully, by the time we finish this next debate, we will be in a posture to lock in whatever amendments are in order and move forward on this bill.

As everyone knows, there are a lot of people interested in the Agriculture bill. That has been around for a day or two. So Senator DASCHLE wanted me to state that he wants to do everything he can to finish this bill tonight. We hope people will understand there will be some votes throughout the evening.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Vermont.

Mr. LEAHY. Madam President, I thank the Senate for moving expeditiously on the Hutchinson nomination. I note that on Monday and Tuesday of this week the Judiciary Committee followed through on its confirmation hearing for Robert Mueller III, the President's nominee to be Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I mention this because this was the fifth confirmation hearing the Judiciary Committee held in July for judicial and executive branch nominees, which is pretty good because we were not allowed, under the reorganization, to have Members assigned to our committee until July 10.

In fact, I cannot think of any time in the last 6 years where the Judiciary Committee held five confirmation hearings in 3 weeks. Two of those hearings involved judicial nominees to the Courts of Appeals.

I appreciate the fact that the Senator from Montana, Mr. Baucus, noted that we held the hearing on the two district court nominees for Montana "in a very expeditious fashion." It was gracious of Senator HUTCHINSON to offer his thanks for our scheduling the confirmation hearing of ASA HUTCHINSON to be head of the DEA "so expeditiously" after Senate reorganization. I appreciate William Riley, the nominee to the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals, thanking the Judiciary Committee for "holding a prompt hearing." It was gratifying when Senator COCHRAN noted that he was "very pleased with the dispatch" with which we held a
